

Privacy Policy

Updated 20.10.2024

Language teaching

Participants who take our language courses, book individual lessons or purchase teaching packages, provide information about their name, date of birth, email address, address and telephone number as well as education and language skills. This is used to create individual language portfolios as part of the initial mapping. This information is stored as long as the participant has a non-expired lesson contract and/or a user account in our digital learning platform Moodle.

All data associated with the user account in Moodle, including language portfolios, submitted assignments and communication with the teacher or other participants, will be deleted no later than 1 year after the course has ended. The participant can download the course material for their own use within one week of the end of the course if the participant has completed the course.

Events

Participants at one of Kurskollektivet's events fill out a registration form, where we collect information about name, email address, address and telephone number, as well as information about which event it concerns.

If the event requires the participant to have a user account on Kurskollektivet's learning platform Moodle, this will be stated in the registration form and all data associated with the participant's user account will be deleted within 30 days after the course or event has ended.

Marketing

We do not use information from registration or application forms for marketing purposes, unless specific consent has been obtained.

Recording of the teaching

If recordings or photos are taken of teaching activities with participants online or in physical premises, voluntary and specific consent will be obtained with a description of what the recording will be used for.

Processing and deletion of personal data

All personal data is stored and processed in accordance with the purpose for which it was collected, and is automatically deleted in accordance with applicable regulatory requirements, or upon withdrawal of consent where this is the basis for processing. For more information: www.datatilsynet.no

Right to access

You can request a copy of all personal information about you that Kurskollektivet has by sending us an email.

Contact information

Controller: Kurskollektivet

Email: kontakt@kurskollektivet.no

Organisation number: 999000727